General Overview
The Office of the Vice President for Finance (VPF) works to advance MIT’s mission by supporting thoughtful stewardship and effective deployment of the Institute’s financial resources. Forward-thinking and future-oriented, this 165-person office is working to create a seamless administrative experience for MIT colleagues and make it easier for them to comply with grant, accounting, and other applicable rules. VPF also seeks to enhance the quality of financial information available to MIT and is focused on providing services that are readily adaptable to the evolving demands of an increasingly global Institute. A team-oriented office, VPF strives to exemplify financial and administrative excellence and the highest levels of integrity, inclusiveness, and accountability.

Position Overview Statement
The Human Resources (HR) Administrator will support VPF’s employees, across a wide spectrum of human resources needs. She/he will partner with directors and managers within VPF, to foster an engaging, productive, supportive, and positive workplace for all employees. She/he will advise and assist the HR director, VPF directors, and staff on human resources matters and acts as a liaison with MIT central Human Resources. She/he administers human resources activities including recruitment, onboarding, performance management and development, employee relations, compensation, and diversity. The Administrator ensures compliance with applicable federal, state, and local laws, and partners with the director on strategic planning and implementation in the Office of the Vice President for Finance.
