GENERAL OVERVIEW:
The Office of the Vice President for Finance (VPF) works to advance MIT’s mission by supporting thoughtful stewardship and effective deployment of the Institute’s financial resources. Forward-thinking and future-oriented, this 165-person office is working to create a seamless administrative experience for MIT colleagues and make it easier for them to comply with grant, accounting, and other applicable rules. VPF also seeks to enhance the quality of financial information available to MIT and is focused on providing services that are readily adaptable to the evolving demands of an increasingly global Institute. A team-oriented office, VPF strives to exemplify financial and administrative excellence and the highest levels of integrity, inclusiveness, and accountability.

POSITION OVERVIEW:
The Merchant Services Associate is the first point of contact for VPF’s Merchant Services and serves as the credit card administrator, providing support to entities within MIT who use credit cards to collect payments. This position requires a significant customer service orientation and will work with a wide variety of departments across the Institute, and with external partners including banks, e-commerce credit card payment and security companies, and other financial institutions.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities (Essential Functions):

- Creates and makes changes to procedures for internal merchants (departments, labs, and centers) at MIT seeking to accept credit cards for goods and services
- Reports on monthly merchant services activity for all MIT merchants
- Maintains database of MIT merchants to ensure information is up to date and compliant with Payment Card Industry (PCI) and Data Security Standards (DSS)
- Reviews and posts daily credit card bank feeds
- Monitors and manages internal chargebacks
- Reviews applications from internal merchants, bringing issues of concern to the attention of the Manager of Merchant Services
- Identifies and investigates errors on accounts and performs reconciliations to adjust for discrepancies
- Acts as backup to the PCI Compliance Officer to approve business applications, guide merchants through self-assessment questionnaires and represents VPF Merchant Services to endure data security standards are met
- Trains merchants on MIT’s products, policies, and services related to credit card payments
- Supports new MIT merchants from the early exploration and testing phase, through implementation, addressing questions and concerns as they arise
- Provides daily support to merchants via VPF’s Request Tracker System (RT), and follows up to resolve issues
- Interacts with Cybersource (a credit card processing company) on issues on behalf of MIT’s merchants
• Contributes to the overall efficiency of merchant processing by identifying service gaps, opportunities, and trends from RT tickets
• Makes suggestions for updates to training documentation and to the VPF website to continually enhance understanding of policies and procedures
• Performs other duties as needed to ensure PCI Compliance for MIT merchants
