General Overview

The Office of the Vice President for Finance (VPF) works to advance MIT’s mission by supporting thoughtful stewardship and effective deployment of the Institute’s financial resources. Forward-thinking and future-oriented, this 165-person office is working to create a seamless administrative experience for MIT colleagues and make it easier to comply with grant, accounting, and other applicable rules. VPF also seeks to enhance the quality of financial information available to MIT and is focused on providing services that are readily adaptable to the evolving demands of an increasingly global Institute. A team-oriented office, VPF strives to exemplify financial and administrative excellence and the highest levels of integrity, inclusiveness, and accountability.

Position Overview Statement

This role supports the Sponsored Accounting team as an experienced contributor by overseeing the financial review of specific sponsor awards and contributing to the overall closeout process of those awards. This includes but is not limited to performing audits of expired sponsored research awards, preparing and reviewing financial reports and documents, and overseeing community and team training sessions. She/he provides exemplary customer service and support to the MIT community on complex sponsored research inquiries. The ideal candidate will be comfortable working under minimal supervision and with strict deadlines.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities (Essential Functions)

- Is responsible for all financial concerns related to an assigned portfolio of sponsors including conducting audits, disseminating audit findings, and performing timely and accurate closeouts of expired awards
- Acts as a technical knowledge resource by providing customer service on a broad range of issues related to sponsored research awards, including audit findings and resolution of those issues and concerns
- Prepares financial reports by gathering and analyzing sponsored research data
- Prepares and submits monthly letter of credit drawings and cash flow and interest calculations worksheets
- Gathers sponsored accounting data in support of internal and external auditor requests
- Documents trends and suggest process improvements on financial findings, common questions and concerns from the community, and issues that may impact other awards and programs
- Acts as a resource to team members to resolve issues associated with audit findings
- Prepares cost sharing funding adjustments
- Reviews, corrects, and approves journal voucher requests
- Updates, maintains, and analyzes team operational dashboard which may include reviewing information prepared by the team with a focus on process improvements and operational issues
- Reviews sponsored research financial data reports created by team members
- Takes a leadership role on special projects
- Creates and leads training sessions to educate the team and MIT community on Sponsored Accounting topics
- Assists the Accounts Receivable team with sponsored research billing issues
- Other duties and projects as assigned

Qualifications

Required:
- Bachelor’s degree in an accounting, finance, or related business area
- Minimum of three years of experience in financial operations including accounting and/or research administration
- Minimum of three years of experience delivering excellent customer service
- Advanced knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, Outlook, PowerPoint)
- Demonstrated ability to swiftly identify issues and resolve with minimal guidance, and to escalate when necessary
- Strong analytical, problem solving, and organizational skills
- Highly organized with the ability to ensure timely delivery of all responsibilities and assignments
- Must be able to manage multiple tasks while paying attention to detail and accuracy
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to use discretion, tact, and good judgment working with highly sensitive and confidential information
- Collaborative working style to foster interpersonal relationships within the team and the broader community
- Flexibility and willingness to pitch in with the team to get the job done on all tasks, and to modify approach as required by the situation
- Demonstrated adaptability and flexibility to learn new tasks, take on new assignments, and support team initiatives

Preferred:
- Demonstrated sponsored research administration experience including financial audit of sponsored research awards, reviewing and recording journal entries
- Experience with SAP or similar enterprise accounting systems, Brio Query, and Cognos
- Prior MIT experience
